

January 9: Finding our Voice

A presentation about stuttering in the Bible and today. As we encounter Moses, the most famous of Jewish stutterers, join us on Shabbat afternoon shortly following services for this important conversation (same zoom link)

January 15-16: Honoring Martin Luther King Jr.

On Friday night, we will present a uniquely Jewish musical rendition of speeches by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

A Special Shabbat morning sermon will be given by Rabbi Jack Moline on "Protecting Faith and Freedom: the Importance of Interfaith Alliances" as we remember Rev. Dr Martin Luther King Jr. and his relationship with the Jewish community."

January 22: Tu Bishvat:

Tune in for Friday night services as we think about the importance of Judaism and the environment as we celebrate the New Year of the Trees.

January 23: Bar Mitzvah of Michael Isaacson

SPOTLIGHT SHABBAT
is our way of making our weekly virtual Shabbat services a little more special for all.

January 30: Shabbat Shira

The Kol Rinah Virtual choir will give a special performance for Shabbat Shira, the Shabbat of Song. In Parashat B'shalach, we celebrate Moses and Miriam leading the Israelites across the Sea of Reeds and bursting out in song. It is traditionally a very musical Shabbat!

February 6: A Celebration of the Everyday

This special Shabbat morning service will be led by people actively involved in the morning and evening daily minyan. Spearheaded by the "164 Club" (those who participate in the evening minyan because the service begins on page 164), we will celebrate how we come together on a daily basis and what that means for our prayer lives.

February 13: Shabbat Shekalim

Shabbat Shekalim recalls the contributions given by ancient Israelites to support the community. Join us for a special service highlighting the role of volunteerism and philanthropy in Jewish life, as we launch a communal tzedakah project.

February 27: Disability Rights In the US, Israel, and Beyond: From A Jewish Perspective

February is Jewish Disabilities and Inclusion Month and so we will dedicate this Shabbat morning service to exploring these issues, especially during Covid-19. Our guest speaker will be Arlene S. Kanter, Professor of Law at Syracuse University, and the the founder and Director of the Disability Law & Policy Program (DLPP).

March 13: Bar Mitzvah of Ethan Kaminer

March 20: "We shall love the stranger for we were once strangers."

Featuring Tamar Rechnitz, Director of Education at Tag Meir Coalition, an organization that combats hate crimes in Israel and Palestine. Learn about work being done in Israel to fight racism and the fear of the other, as we prepare for Passover.

All Spotlight Shabbat services will take place on our regular Shabbat zoom links, live stream and facebook.
